

CZECHS ATTRACT RECORD CROWD TO ARMORY PAGEANT

Galaxy of Girls at "America's Making" Seldom Excelled in a Broadway Revue.

Attendance records at "America's Making" were broken last night. Thousands formed lines three blocks long at 8 o'clock outside the 1st Regiment Armory waiting admission to the Czech-Slovak spectacle scheduled for 9:15.

In the official box the Minister of Czechoslovakia, Dr. Bedrich Stepanek, was the principal guest. With him were seated the Consul General, Dr. Bozsek Frusik, and the Vice Consul, Dr. Tomsak. There were also Prof. Wendel of City College, Prof. Saria Hobek, Mr. and Mrs. Bartek of the Metropolitan Opera Company and Mrs. Thomas Capek.

The amphitheatre, in the centre of the drill floor, was a kaleidoscope of flashing, brilliant color from the time the pageant entered until the strains of "The Star Spangled Banner" brought the great throng to its feet at the conclusion of the ensemble drill after the national dance known as the Beseda. Having seen that dance, the spectator is apt to wonder why any one in America or out of it should ever want to dance anything else.

The outstanding feature was feminine grace and beauty. The galaxy of beautiful women has seldom been excelled in a Broadway revue.

Chorus singing that sounded far beyond the confines of the Armory thrilled those who listened. Throughout the day and evening the booth representing what citizens of this supposed new country have done toward America's making had the attention of those of other nationalities as well. Not until it was seen emblazoned upon the Slovak escutcheon was it realized that as early as the seventeenth century their people came to America, and that the great Horner immortalized his name by making the first maps of Maryland and Virginia. The first girls' society in America is also credited to the same race.

It was announced that tentative arrangements are being made for transferring the great exhibition to Boston, Chicago and other large cities. Edward A. Flinn of Boston made the request to Dr. John H. Finley, former head of the State Department of Education and President of the exposition, over the long distance telephone.

To-night American heroes of Irish extraction will be honored by their descendants and all Americans in Greater New York with Irish blood are expected to join. An elaborate programme has been prepared. Many visitors of distinction will be present. Archbishop Hayes will speak and music will be supplied by McNamara's Orchestra and the Clason Point Military Band.

KILLED BY SISTER-IN-LAW.
—CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 3.—Draquale Benna was shot and killed yesterday at the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Marie Louise Tassinari. The woman, arrested by a squad of officers who surrounded the house, said she shot Benna with his own revolver, disarming him when he threatened her. Benna was said to have gone to the house to endeavor to persuade her to go away with him. The police found nearly $1,000 in his pockets.

COSTS CITY $15,000 TO COUNT OUT ALDERMEN

Board to Act To-Day on Report of Lee and Cassidy Election.

New York City will be put to an expense of about $15,000 as the result of the counting out two years ago of Socialist Aldermen Algernon Lee and Edward F. Cassidy, who for twenty-two months have been fighting to gain their seats.

The Board of Aldermen will meet to-day to take action on the report just filed by the Committee on Privileges and Elections showing that they were elected. After the two have been seated they will be entitled to collect salaries for their full terms, $3,000 in each case. In addition the city will have paid to Aldermen Graubard and T. J. Sullivan, approximately $5,600 for the time they served in the board. This salary, according to the views of the Aldermanic leaders, could not be recovered even if there were any desire on the part of the Tammany majority to do so.

In addition the city will have to pay the expenses of the recount. These and the Socialists' legal fees are expected to total $2,000 or more.
